

ENTRANCE EXAMINATION, 2013

M.Phil./Ph.D.

INTERNATIONAL LEGAL STUDIES

[Field of Study Code : ILGP (105)]

Time Allowed : 3 hoursMaximum Marks : 70

All questions carry equal marks

Answer any five questions

1. What is the third world approach to international law? Write with special reference to the contribution of an Asian Scholar.
2. Critically examine the international law-making process. What is the difference between 'hard law' and 'soft law'?
3. Are individuals and non-governmental organizations (NGOs) subjects of international law?
4. Write an essay on international law of diplomatic asylum, with special reference to the Julian Assange case.
5. Write an essay on the WTO dispute settlement system.
6. Explain the origin and development of the principle of common but differentiated responsibility and respective capabilities under international environmental law.
7. Write an essay on the evolution and development of international human rights law. Identify the key features of any recent international convention on human rights.
8. Is unilateral armed humanitarian intervention lawful under international law?

9. Critically examine international war crimes tribunals with special reference to ad hoc war crimes tribunals established by the UN Security Council.
10. Write short notes on any two of the following :
- (a) Piracy and International Law
 - (b) Most Favoured Nation (MFN) Clause
 - (c) International Court of Justice
 - (d) Interpretation of Treaties

★ ★ ★